2.1.7. Calgary Raiders Hockey Club Code of Conduct - Failure to Comply

Failure by a Member or Participant to comply with the expected standard of conduct set out in the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club Code of Conduct constitutes an infraction and may result in disciplinary action and the imposition of a sanction in accordance with the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club policy on discipline contained within this document.

3.0 Discipline Policy

It is Calgary Raiders Hockey Club's intention that each infraction of the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club Code of Conduct is dealt with in an objective, fair and consistent manner with appropriate repercussions for the severity of the actions.

Minor Infractions: Single incident offences. No safety concern offenses. Examples: arguing, obscene, vulgar language towards anyone at any time. Addressing issues with threatening, discourteous, or unsportsmanlike behavior. Bullying offences, breach of social media policy.

Major Infractions: Multi-incident offences/serious incidents/safety concern/maltreatment offences. Examples: deliberate disregard of rules & regulations, harassment offences, threats of physical violence, malicious behavior, physical violence, use of alcohol, tobacco, vaping, or cannabis by minors.

Hybrid Infractions: As determined by the Director of Safety & Conduct, The President, The Discipline Committee, or other appointed designates. These infractions can be delegated minor or major as determined by the designate. Examples: Repeat infractions, a total of three or more minor infractions (3 strikes rule). Minor infractions that can be deemed hate crimes/harassment.

It is the expectation of Calgary Raiders Hockey Club that minor disciplinary infractions should be first dealt with at the team level, whenever possible. Team level rulings may be imposed by the Head Coach, the Team Manager, the Division Director, or the Coach Coordinator. Any sanction imposed at the team level must be immediately reported by the Team Manager or Head Coach to the Division Director, or the Coach Coordinator, the Director of Safety & Conduct, and the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club President.

Major & Hybrid infractions must be immediately reported to the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club President and copied to the Director of Safety & Conduct. All Members are encouraged to report on concerns of potential conduct issues. These infractions shall be screened for assignment to the Calgary Raiders President, the Division Director, or the Coach Coordinator. In the most severe cases requiring immediate expulsion, the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club President may assign the infraction directly to a special meeting of the Board of Directors, as described in the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club Bylaws.

Calgary Raiders Hockey Club reserves the right, and at times, may be obligated to consult with, and report to Hockey Calgary, Calgary Police Services, Child Protective Services, and/or any other bodies as deemed necessary, any information regarding complaints filed, investigations, disciplinary hearings, and any resulting sanctions.

Where the conduct being reviewed by this Policy is of a sensitive nature, Calgary Raiders Hockey Club will keep all proceedings under the Policy confidential, except where disclosure is ordered as part of the sanction, is required by law, or is in the best interest of the public.

3.1 REPORTING A COMPLAINT

3.1.1. A person ("Complainant") who experiences, witnesses, or has reason to believe that unacceptable conduct has occurred, must first adhere to the "24-Hour Rule" and review the Code of Conduct Policy as applicable. Once the "24-hour rule" has been followed, this person may then contact the Team Manager/Coach to try and resolve the situation at the team level.

3.1.2. If resolution cannot be solved at the team level or due to severity of the infraction or urgency, the complainant will then contact in writing the Division Director, VP of Safety & Conduct, VP On-Ice, VP Off-Ice, and the President.

3.1.3. The complainant will include a completed and signed CRHC Incident Form which can be found on the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club website in their communication to the VP, Safety & Conduct.

3.1.4. A complaint must be communicated within fourteen (14) days of the alleged incident. Anonymous complaints will not be accepted.

3.1.5. A complainant wishing to file a complaint beyond the fourteen (14) days must provide a written statement giving reasons for an exemption to this limitation. The decision to accept, or not accept, the notice of complaint outside the fourteen (14) day period will be at the sole discretion of the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club President. This decision may not be appealed.

3.2 Discipline Committee

The Discipline Committee (DC), also described in the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club Bylaws as the “Rules Committee,” will enforce the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club Code of Conduct and Discipline Policy, as well as specific Member and/or Participant expectations.

Discipline Committee Chair:

The Calgary Raiders Hockey Club VP of Safety & Conduct is designated as the Discipline Committee Chair.

The Discipline Committee is comprised of the Chair, and a minimum of three CRHC members in good standing. The Discipline Committee may also contain additional appointed Officers and CRHC Board Directors. The Discipline Committee must sign a Confidentiality Agreement and be approved by the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club Board of Directors.

The Discipline Committee is authorized to:

- Investigate any major, minor, or hybrid infraction either at the request of the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club President, or as a part of monitoring compliance of an ongoing ruling.
- Override any team level ruling and issue a new ruling.
- Consult with independent services as a part of any investigation.
 - This may include, but is not limited to, Hockey Calgary, Calgary Police services and Child Protective Services.
- Utilize the services of the Division Coordinator, or the Coach Coordinator, or any other persons deemed appropriate to aid in their investigation process.

- Call for a special meeting of the Board of Directors to vote on the expulsion of a Member as per the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club Bylaws.

3.3 Discipline Committee Procedures

- Assess the Need for An Investigation: When appointed by the President to address a complaint of an infraction, the Discipline Committee Chair shall assess the need for investigation and determine whether an investigation is necessary to establish if an infraction under this Policy's jurisdiction has occurred.

If an investigation is deemed necessary:

- Conduct an Investigation: The chair will convene the Discipline Committee to conduct a fair and impartial investigation into the matter. This may include but is not limited to gathering witness statements or obtaining statements from parties with relevant information, arrange for a Discipline Committee hearing or meeting to seek clarification, inquire into the circumstances of the alleged infraction, provide involved parties with an opportunity to share their perspectives on the matter, or review the known facts.
- Determine the Occurrence of an Infraction: Based on the original facts presented or the results of the investigation, the Discipline Committee will decide whether an infraction within the policy's jurisdiction has occurred.
- Issue a Ruling: If an infraction is found, the Discipline Committee will determine the appropriate disciplinary sanction, and the Chair will issue a written ruling to the Respondent and the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club President. A summary or the full ruling may also be provided to the Complainant.
- Dismissal of Complaints: If no infraction is found, the Chair will obtain the President's concurrence, then inform both the Complainant and Respondent of the complaint's dismissal, providing reasons for the decision.
- Enforce Sanctions: If a disciplinary sanction is imposed, the Chair will coordinate its application with other representatives of the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club as needed and monitor compliance by those subject to the sanction.

3.3.1. Discipline Committee Investigation

Should an investigation be deemed necessary, the Discipline Committee will determine the format of the process for each investigation.

The Discipline Committee Chair shall attempt to contact the Respondent, providing notice that an investigation is underway, including the nature of the complaint, and providing an opportunity to submit a statement and/or attend a meeting.

In many cases the Respondent's statement will be the extent of their contribution to the investigation. The failure of a Respondent to submit a statement or failure to attend a meeting will be considered acceptance of complaint as presented.

In some cases, the Discipline Committee may determine that an oral hearing, either in person or through video chat is required. Should an oral hearing be required, the Respondent will be given reasonable notice of the format as well as day, time, and place of any hearing.

All CRHC members who are requested to participate in an investigation, whether by providing a written statement or attending a meeting or hearing conducted by the Discipline Committee, are required to comply, and fully cooperate.

3.3.2. Calgary Raiders Hockey Club Zero Tolerance Infractions

Calgary Raiders Hockey Club has zero tolerance regarding possession of, or contact with any drug, alcohol, tobacco products or weapon use at any Calgary Raiders Hockey Club event (games, practices, social events, etc.).

Calgary Raiders Hockey Club has zero tolerance for incidents of theft, vandalism, or other blatant disrespect of any personal, community or City property.

Those responsible for such acts will be immediately suspended and subject to further action to be determined by the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club Discipline Committee or the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club Board of Directors.

3.3.3. Discipline Committee Rulings / Sanctions

Once an infraction has been identified, the Discipline Committee is authorized to determine rulings, and thus impose sanctions against a Member, Participant, or both.

Discipline Committee rulings could include, but are not limited to, the suspension of a Member or Participant from Calgary Raiders Hockey Club hockey activities or a recommendation to the Board of Directors for the revocation of a Calgary Raiders Hockey Club membership.

The Discipline Committee may, in order to fit the circumstances of the infraction:

- Determine that there is no requirement for additional sanctions
- Put in place an immediate temporary suspension of all the Member's and/or Participant's hockey privileges while the infraction is under investigation
- Implement disciplinary sanctions. Examples of sanctions may include, but are not limited to:

 - Application of financial fees to recover costs associated with the infraction
 - Call for a Special Meeting of the Board of Directors to vote on the Expulsion from membership, and/or
 - Publication of the disciplinary sanction
 - Match or add to an existing Hockey Calgary Suspension

- It is understood that the above are representative penalties only, that they may be modified to fit the circumstances of the infraction, and that they are presented generally in order of severity. Any suspensions given will apply to all teams the Participant is involved with. Multiple or repeated infractions of the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club Code of Conduct may incur more severe sanctions.
- Match any sanction imposed by Hockey Calgary, Hockey Alberta, and/or Hockey Canada
- Require that any ruling be acknowledged through signature as having been received within 72 hours of any Discipline Ruling being sent out. Failure to submit a signed acknowledgment may result in an immediate suspension of all the Member's and/or Participant's hockey privileges until such an acknowledgment of receipt is received by the Discipline Committee. The failure to submit a signed acknowledgment will also be treated as an indication of acceptance of all parts of the ruling's investigation report and imposed sanctions.

NOTE: A suspended player is ineligible to referee any sanctioned games while serving their own suspensions

4.0 Ruling Appeals

Calgary Raiders Hockey Club provides the opportunity to its Members and Participants to appeal both team level rulings and Discipline Committee rulings.

All rulings remain in full force during the appeal process. An individual who wishes to appeal a ruling must continue to abide by the terms of the ruling under appeal. Failure to abide by the terms of a discipline ruling under effect will be considered a new infraction against the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club Code of Conduct and result in new, and often more severe sanctions being applied.

Sanctions or rulings may only be appealed as described below.

4.1. Appeals of Team Level Rulings

Team level rulings may be appealed through a submission to the Calgary Raiders Hockey Club President for screening. An individual who wishes to appeal a team level ruling shall have 72 hours from the time they received notice of the ruling to submit the following:

- Assign the Division Coordinator, the Coach Coordinator, or some other designate to attempt to resolve the situation before an escalation to the Discipline Committee will be considered.
- Reject the appeal of the team level ruling
 - Any such rejection may consider the team level ruling to be the equivalent of a Discipline Committee ruling. The ruling would then open to follow the process for appeals of Discipline Committee Rulings.

4.2. Appeals of Discipline Committee Rulings

Discipline Committee rulings may be appealed to an Appeals Hearing. An individual who wishes to appeal a Disciplinary Committee ruling, shall have 72 hours from the time they received notice of the ruling, to submit the following:

If the President is not available, a member of the Executive Committee will be designated to perform this function. This decision is at the sole discretion of the President or the President's designate and may not be appealed within Calgary Raiders Hockey Club.

If the appeal is approved, then the appeal shall proceed to an Appeals Hearing. The Calgary Raiders Hockey Club President or designee shall have 7 days to appoint the members of the Appeals Panel. The Calgary Raiders Hockey Club President may not be a member of the Appeals Panel.
